Madrid, June 18, N. S.

SEveral Posts in the Army having been vacant a long Time, his Catholick Majesty has thought fit to fill them up, by appointing proper Officers for all those Vacancies according to their Rank: The same has been done in the four Batallions of Marine Troops. The Captain General of Valencia has sent Advice hither, that the Inhabitants of that Town had gathered together in a tumultuous Manner and committed several Outrages because their Privileges are not restored to them by the late Peace with the Emperour; but some of the chief Rioters being seized and committed to Prison, the rest of them dispersed.
